FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

British Columbia Discovery Fund to redeem $5.5 million of Shares – DCC400 redemption orders open for eligible shares only

VANCOUVER, B.C. November 11, 2013

British Columbia Discovery Fund (VCC) Inc. (the "Fund"), a venture capital investment fund managed by Discovery Capital Management Corp. ("DCMC"), is very pleased to announce a $5.5 million redemption of its Class A Shares. The Fund has identified those shares eligible to be redeemed by designating them as DCC400 shares, as outlined below in this press release.

"This is our second redemption in 2013 made possible by the spectacular success of the Fund's portfolio company, Avigilon Corporation", stated John McEwen, CEO of the Fund. "While we continue to hold an investment position in Avigilon for future possible gains, we have sold a considerable portion of the Fund's shareholdings in Avigilon, in accordance with the Fund's mandate to harvest gains from its mature portfolio companies, and in order to satisfy our shareholders' pent-up demand for liquidity on their investment in the Fund."

"We will have made $10.9 million in redemptions in 2013, meeting our target of 20% of prior year-end net asset value. We are very pleased that we have been able to provide shareholders who have been waiting much longer than we or they anticipated with the opportunity to finally achieve liquidity on their investment in BC Discovery Fund", stated Charles Cook, CFO of the Fund. "We will continue to work with our portfolio companies to achieve liquidity events that will enable the Fund to further process backlogged redemption requests as expeditiously as possible."

Redemption Eligibility and Pricing

Those shareholders who:

- (a) had held their shares for the minimum required five-year hold period when they initially requested redemption; and,
- (b) made their initial redemption request prior to September 3, 2010; and,
- (c) are currently on the redemption "waiting list" of the Fund, will have the opportunity to have their redemption requests fulfilled. Redemptions will be available to those persons on the waiting list in the order in which their names were placed on the list until the current $5.5 million redemption amount is exhausted. However, those persons must make new redemption request orders using only DCC400 coded shares, as outlined below.

The Fund will continue to maintain its waiting list of unfilled redemption requests and will process them as and to the extent it is able to do so in the future.

Starting November 12, 2013, the Fund will contact all brokerage firms representing shareholders whose eligible redemption requests are already on the waiting list to advise them as to their eligibility to submit a new redemption order to be processed in this current $5.5 million redemption. Every attempt will also be made by the Fund to contact the individual registered representatives of these shareholders and, in the case of direct investing accounts, the shareholders directly. Although shareholders are already on the redemption waiting list, new orders to have their shares redeemed are requested to be submitted on or before Friday, November 29, 2013. Procedures for submitting orders are outlined below and will be further detailed in the "Dealer Advisement" notices sent to the relevant brokerage firms.

The redemption price to be paid will be the weekly Pricing Net Asset Value per Share calculated by the Fund for the week in respect of which the new redemption orders are received by the Fund.

Procedures

1. DCC100 shares that are eligible for redemption have been converted into DCC400 shares. "Re-org" files are being sent to all relevant brokerage firms to show this conversion – this process may take several days before being reflected on firm systems. Because of different Fund share purchases at different times, a shareholder may temporarily hold both DCC100 and DCC400 shares. Only DCC400 shares may be redeemed at this time. Sell orders should not be placed for any DCC100 shares, as they will be rejected.
2. New redemption orders for DCC400 shares are requested to be placed before 1:00 p.m. (PST) on Friday, November 29, 2013 through the brokerage accounts holding the DCC400 shares.
3. In the case of shareholders holding shares in a direct investing or discount brokerage account, the new redemption order must be placed through their discount brokers. Manual requests will not be accepted by the Fund.
